

36 Mystic Lane, Palmer Lake, CO 80133

719-465-2001

1/31/2012

Press Release

Date: January 31, 2012

Re: Colorado Springs, CO City Council President, Steve Hente signs Proclamation

Colorado Springs, CO City Council President, Steve Hente, in association with Mayor Cressman of Palmer Lake, CO and proclaimed April 28, 2012 as "Youth Empowerment Day." This proclamation will be presented to FamilyNation non-profit, during a ceremony at the Youth Empowerment Festival, Palmer Lake Town Hall on April 28th at 6pm. The public is welcome.

FamilyNation invests in the future of Colorado by helping to provide grants, leadership opportunities and services to youth and young adults. They are a non-profit organization devoted to inspiring, empowering and motivating at risk youth to bring about positive change in their lives and communities by improving access to needed tools and programs. They believe that sustainable human development is the best our communities have in the fight against poverty and social inequality.

For more information, please contact FamilyNation at events@familynation.net or 719-465-2001.

